2. Student assisting sessions, class participation & presentations, exams. (LO #2)

Attendance Policy:

Tardiness: No participation credit will be given to tardy students. It is the student's responsibility to mark themselves as tardy on the roll; students not recording tardiness will receive an unexcused absence for the day. Tardiness beyond 15 minutes or being tardy three times constitutes an absence.

Absences: Only absences cause by official travel arranged by the University constitute an excused absence. Please personally email your instructor in addition to the official approved absence notification. Each class is equivalent to two classes so no more than two unexcused absences before grade will be lowered to an F.

Make-up Policy:

All assignments not turned in at the beginning of class on due date will be given half credit of the graded score. Assignments more than two weeks late will not be given credit.

Preparation and Participation:

Details of assignments will be discussed or handed out in class.

Email Policy:

Students are also responsible for checking email once every 24 hours Monday-Friday.

Cell Phone Policy:

Students will be dismissed from class for the day if cell phone rings during class. Students are expected to excuse themselves without instructor intervention. If there is a dire situation in which your cell phone must be left on please inform instructor before class and if possible please turn phone to vibrate only. This behavior is expected in nearly all professional recording situations.

Students with Disabilities:

The Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) prohibits discrimination against individuals with disabilities. Under ADA, a disability is defined as a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity. If you need accommodations because of a disability, please register with the Office of Learning Resources and Services (located in the Academic Enrichment Center in Howe Hall, room 204) at the beginning of each semester, or as soon as possible, so that arrangements can be made. Accommodations are granted on a case-by-case basis with the support of proper documentation. Please call the office of Learning Resources and Services at 540-665-4928 or email dss@su.edu for information and/or to make an appointment to discuss your needs. You will find more information at: <http://www.student-life.su.edu/disability-services>

Honor Code:

The SU Honor Code prohibits lying, stealing, and cheating. As a faculty member of SU, I am dedicated to upholding the standards of academic integrity prescribed by the Honor Code, and I do not tolerate academic dishonesty for any reason. If I suspect a violation has occurred, I will take action. If you have questions about the Honor Code, please come talk to me or refer to Honor Code on the SU website. Logging in to a SU system with a SU issued login signifies that you are agreeing to abide by the SU Honor Code.

Inclement Weather:

Notice of class cancellations and campus closings will occur through the Emergency Alert System and will be placed on area radio and television stations, the SU Web site and the University phone system.

In incidences of class canceled due to campus closure, class material will be reorganized to absorb content and classroom work through regularly scheduled classes. In some cases assignments will be given in replacement of the contact hours.

Student Complaint Policy:

Shenandoah University affirms the right of students to bring forth complaints and is committed to resolving these matters in a fair, equitable and timely manner, so as to protect the rights of both the individual and the community. Refer to the student catalog for specific procedures.

Student Privacy:

Annually, Shenandoah University provides information to students concerning their rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended (FERPA). This act was designed to protect the privacy of education records and afford students certain rights with respect to their education records. Refer to the student catalog for specific procedures.

In compliance with FERPA, students 18 years of age or older must authorize contact between faculty members and their parents/guardians. Forms are available in the Conservatory Office and must be signed prior to any discussions between faculty members and student parents/guardians.
